

Whole Life Insurance

can pay money to your family if you die. It can help them with basic living expenses, final arrangements, tuition and more.

How does it work?

You can keep Whole Life Insurance as long as you want. Once you've bought coverage, your cost won't increase as you age. The benefit amount stays the same, too — it doesn't decrease as you get older. That means you get protection during your working years and into retirement.

Whole Life Insurance also earns interest, or "cash value," at a guaranteed rate of 4.5%.^{*} You can borrow from that cash value, or you can buy a smaller, paid-up policy — with no more premiums due.

What's included?

A "Living" Benefit

You can request an early payout of your policy's death benefit (up to $150,000 maximum) if you're expected to live 12 months or less. It would reduce the benefit that's paid when you die.

Waiver of Premium

If you're disabled for at least six months before age 65 and you remain disabled, you won't have to pay premiums until you recover and return to work.

Long Term Care Rider

You may be able to use your death benefit to pay for long term care. Subject to rider conditions. See your plan administrator for more information.

Who can get coverage?

You	You can purchase coverage for as little as $3 weekly, as long as the minimum benefit is at least $2,000. The benefit amount is based on the premium amount you select, your age when coverage begins, and whether you use tobacco.
Your spouse: Individual coverage	Available for your spouse, ages 15-80, even if you don't purchase coverage for yourself. If you leave your employer, you can keep this coverage and be billed at home. You can purchase coverage for as little as $3 weekly, as long as the minimum benefit is at least $2,000. The benefit amount is based on the premium amount you choose, your spouse's age when coverage begins, and whether they use tobacco.
Your children: Individual coverage	Your children and grandchildren can have individual coverage, even if you don't get coverage for yourself. If you leave your employer, your children can keep their coverage. You can purchase coverage for each child for as little as $1 a week.

Why should I buy coverage now?

- It's more affordable when you're younger. Once you've bought coverage, your cost stays the same as long as you keep it.
- The cost is conveniently deducted from your paycheck.
- Whole life gives you valuable protection in addition to any term life insurance you might have.

What else can I add?

An Accidental Death Benefit

This increases the payment your family would receive if you die from a covered accident before age 70.

- Available for you and your spouse, age 15-65
- Doubles the death benefit, which could add up to $150,000 extra coverage

This option will increase your cost.

When you buy life insurance, you name the people who will receive the money from the policy when you die. These people are called beneficiaries. Unum will pay benefits to the beneficiaries in one lump sum; however, if a beneficiary is a minor (typically younger than 18, but this may vary by state) and no financial guardian has been appointed, the benefits will be paid to that minor through a Unum Retained Asset Account.

A Unum Retained Asset Account is a fund held in Unum's general account for the named minor beneficiary. The account accrues interest regardless of Unum's actual investment performance, and, while not FDIC insured, the account funds are fully guaranteed by Unum. For more information about the retained asset account, please contact Unum.

^aThe policy accumulates cash value based on a non-forfeiture interest rate of 4.5% and the 2017 CSO mortality table. The cash value is guaranteed and will be equal to the values shown in the policy. Cash value will be reduced by any outstanding loans against the policy. Eligible employees must be actively at work to apply for coverage. Employees are not considered actively at work if they are on a leave of absence.

Employees must be U.S. citizens, Canadian citizens working in the U.S., or have a Green Card to receive coverage.

Effective date of coverage

Your coverage will be effective on the first day of the month in which payroll deductions begin.
