C. Procurement Methods. Generally, Agency procurement methods are dictated by provisions of federal law or grant or funding agreements entered into in connection with funding of particular procurements, projects or activities of the Agency. The Procurement Department shall conduct procurements in accordance with procedures required by applicable law, if any, and the provisions of applicable grant or funding agreements, if any. Where no procurement procedure is required by provisions of applicable law or grant or funding agreements, the Procurement Department shall establish procedures for such procurement, which are designed to meet the policies of the Agency as set forth in this Article.

(revised 06/24/22)

In order to honor this commitment, the Board reviews and approves a management-prepared, comprehensive DBE Plan every five years. Each year specific goals for participation are established, and accomplishments are assessed in an annual summary, which is reviewed by the Board.

The Agency does not provide assurances against loss of anticipated profits resulting from the discretionary acts, policies, or decisions of the Agency occurring after the Concession Agreement's effective date, which may affect the concessionaire's operations.

interest in all such structures, fixtures or improvements which are acquired or constructed pursuant to said Agreement, consisting of all incidents of ownership except legal title, which vests with the Agency.

- D. Revenues. Contracts must include the method of remittance of revenues to the Agency.

Revenue from the concession contracts is retained by the Agency and used to offset the need for public subsidy. Revenues pledged to a particular operation are accounted for in accordance with the regulatory requirements.

In lieu of revenue, the Agency may accept an equivalent value of goods and/or services, including but not limited to capital improvements, information services, and site maintenance.

- E. Donations. Donation of a material item, product, or service is to be acquired under the same guidelines as those applicable to a concession contract for which competition exists if the donation provides an identifiable, material return or remuneration to the donor once accepted by the Agency.
